Hi, I am a gujarati s/w professional. My husband is also an E.E. We have 5 yrs old son. My problem is , he is very obstinate and uses abusive language and some times hit me. He don't have any respect for my parents nor for me and keep on telling bad words to my parents. He wants me to get the paternity test done for my son too !! The list goes on, but I will end it. I am not sure what should I do. I only want to do is what ever is the best for my son. I am confused and clueless, may be u guys who r from same culture can help me .

Thanks

Q: I am a gay male, but I do find some females attractive. The problem is, I am not at all aroused by females. Would Viagra give me the same results as other males with erection disorders?

I had two really strange dreams the other two nights. The first one - We were in a war with China and I was leading a group of people who in the dream I knew very well. We were being held captive in a palace by an evil Chinese man with no legs. He said that unless I had sex with him he would kill us all. So I had sex with this legless Chinese man and he let everyone go except for me because he liked me.

The second one - another war this time with Europe. I don't remember what happened but I escaped and went back home where I stayed with a man I am falling for. Only in the dream he had a wife and kids. I walked in on him using feminine products (think tampons!) I ran away to a bookstore where I saw my ex-fiance and my ex-girlfriend (I'm bisexual). My ex-fiance asked me to hold HIS purse while he used the bathroom. He then caught me looking through it and began to chase me trying to hit me (our real relationship was abusive). When he caught me he asked me to marry him.

The only major thing going on in my life right now is that about a week before the dreams my fiance and I split up after a year of living together. However, I am more relieved than upset about this.

Can you help me figure this out?!?

<http://www.healthboards.com/rare-disorders/944.html>

My 11 year old daughter Brittany was a healthy, active child. It began when she started her cycle on Dec.31 and it was really bad. She went in the hospital on Jan 9th and was later diagnosed with thrombotic thrombocytopenic purpura-a rare blood disorder. She died February 11, 2000....

I have no answers. The doctors cant tell me where it came from or what it does.I want to help other children and parents not to have to go through this. If anybody has any answers or can help me with research.I dont understand why this happened to my daughter and I am soooo mad and I have to find out if it was something I did.She was a very special little girl who deserved to live on. I hate this disease and I will find a cure. Please help me!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Brittany, this is for you and I will help any one I can.

I love you, MOM

lets start by saying that i am 16 years old. during the month of april my boyfriend of a year and i had sex. the condom broke and we were worried that he might have caught it too late. well may rolled around and i didnt get my period. i havent taken a test but i am positive that i am pregnant. i tried to be honest with my mother about everything but she blew up and started threatening me and everything else. she said that i better not be pregnant or she would have my boyfriend thrown in jail for statutory rape charges. i know she will do it because my parents are really :old school: i need to know if there is anyway that i can go about getting an abortion without parental consent. there is no way that she will give it to me anyway. this is a last resort and i really need help. i would like the pill preferably. please help me i am truly at the last hope.

I have a problem with my husbands family. My father-in-law is an alcoholic. When he gets drunk he says hurtful things to me and my husband. He curses and says these mean thing in front of his grandchildren and sometimes even directs his anger at them. My mother-in-law and my sis-in-law always excuse his actions by reminding me that he is just drunk. He has pushed me so far that for X-mas dinner (which was held at my house) he said more mean things including that he couldn't wait til my dog was out in the middle of the road and guts splattered all over. After the full day of hearing him get his digs in, I was deduced to screaming at him and cursing in front of the children which is exactly what I don't agree with.

Since then I have decided not to attend any family functions. I still call the rest of the family and make it a point to see them when he is not there. Unfortunately, everyone seems to think I am breaking the family apart.

I forgive him and don't expect an apology out of him. I just can't be around him and pushed to the point where I don't have any self control. I will even send a gift for him for his b-day, I just won't be there. I have told the rest of the family that this is not a choose one or the other situation, just me taking care of myself for once.

Is it wrong of me to isolate myself from him? Is it horrible of me to not want to fight? Do I have to put up with a mean, evil, drunk man because he is my father-in-law? Perhaps I'm being unreasonable and I should act as though nothing has happened?

Anyone have any suggestions? I need help.

Thank you. JCW

Dear Sir or Madam: How do you do! I written this letter because my only daughter in CML (Leukaemia) who need help to look for a new drug STI-571 emergently. This new CML drug named STI-571 produced by Novartis U.S. I know this new drug is in clinic trials in USA, West Europe but not in China.

My daughter is 21 years old now, she has CML in 3 years with a form of PCPL. And she is interferon intolerant, because she injected 5 million IU/day, 5 days/week more than 2 years, but can't get catabatic. Now she is in emergent situation. So she need this STI-571 for a try. Or may I apply to join these trials in any way.

Or do you have any way to help me get some informations?

Best Regards, Chen Shuang, 14:25:32, 2000-02-28

Hi! My name is Keenan Ross and I would like to be just like you. I want to be a person who does magic and spells. I've been studying witchcraft for over 2 months and I have never succeeded into being a witch. My one big wish is to be a witch for the rest of my life and it's kinda hard to be picked on by people you don't even know. So please help me out here.

I'm desperate to be a witch!

Good afternoon. My name is Jhenya.

I live in a Russian city, Novosibirsk. I need your help very much. The fact is that I've got the son. He is eight years old. He is not quite healthy. He has to be educated at home. I am also almost always with him at home. That's why it's difficult for me to find any job. Our living standard is only 500-600 roubles a month, that is 20 dollars. One can hardly survive having such a small sum of money. It happened so, that I have an access to the computer. I would be very thankful for people, who could help me to earn money through WWW, prompt me where and whom should I apply or could render any other feasible help. Our officials are too busy with themselves to help simple and needy people. It leaves much to be hoped that there people who are not indifferent to other misfortune. I shall be very thankful to you.

Thank you for spending your time and reading my request. If you want to connect me, press the button being below.

I thank you once more.

why not help me?

programable lighting makes me sick. the same flashing words all over again. the rush of my mind. so loud, it's deafining. then so quiet it hurts. trying to argue with you hurts. it hurts my heart and my mind. i talk of free speach, but for who? the dumb? the blind? the single-minded? I don't want you to love me. you say your just speaking your mind, but sometimes free-speach hurts. I bang my head against the wall. I cry for I cannot understand you. I just want everything to go right. I leave. You forget about me. but no, you complicate me. these flahing lights, hurt my eyes. you beg me to stay. in that oh so subtle way. I listen and cannot win this fight. I don't want you to hate me. you make me cry, I don't want to cry. I try to explain. it's just too hard. your so stubborn. I hate you, but I don't want to hate you, because that will make you cry. I don't want you to cry. I don't want you to die. Don't cry. Don't die. I don't care anymore. Yet I do. make me choose. so that I can stop hurting. stop me.

make these decisions for me.
